

ZARA GREEN, COMMUNICATIONS SPECIALIST

CAREER SYNOPSIS

Zara Green has nearly 20 years of comprehensive public relations multi-industry experience; 10 years of success consulting, managing and implementing customized internal and external communications solutions in the public and private sectors.

Experiences/Skills:

Host/MC

A native of New Orleans, Zara lived and worked from coast to coast for 13 years, and returned 2 years prior to Hurricane "Katrina" at which time she was the Director of Public Relations for the City of New Orleans.

Public Relations

Zara contracted with SkillPath, an international training company, and was in a different city everyday doing public seminars or private sessions at corporations and government entities.

Governmental Relations

She has a BS in Psychology/Mass Communications from Xavier University of Louisiana, she is a certified counselor and a life-learner.

Community Liaison

News Reporter

Hurricane Katrina prompted a journey she had no intentions of taking: Jackson MS, Memphis TN, Dallas TX, Atlanta GA and recently returning back home - New Orleans...a "hell-venly" journey!

Writer/Editor

Spokesperson

Spokesperson

Bitten by the broadcasting bug early in life, Zara's hosted shows, has done television and radio news, and throughout the years has continued as an on-camera and voice-over talent.

Speaker/Trainer

Mediator

Professional Development & Personal Growth

Zara has customized and delivered more than 1500 presentations; every keynote, seminar, and breakout session has its own unique, and always memorable, Zara-flair.

Organizational Development

Project Manager

Author

- Awareness of Individuality: The Art of Understanding Thoughts and Behaviors

Author

- Beyond Awareness: Optimizing Individuality and Relationships

Contact Information:

Phone: (504) 383-3422

zara@zaragreen.com